

20 Cool Facts you never knew about The Spinosaurus!

1. The Spinosaurus was one of the biggest dinosaurs that ever lived. The body could be between as 46 – 59 (14-16 meters!) feet long from head to tail.
2. The Spinosaurus head was about 5 to 6 feet long! That's almost as big as a full-grown person,
3. Scientists estimate that the Spinosaurus could run at around 15 miles an hour, which is about 23 kilometers an hour
4. The Spinosaurus would have been about 20 ft or 6 meters tall along its spine. It really was a massive dinosaur..
5. The Spinosaurus was heavier as well as longer than a T-rex. It could be between 12,000 to 20,000 kg, 13-22 Tons or 26,000 to 44000 lbs!!

6. The bite force of a Spinosaurus was around 4200 pounds per square inch!
7. Spinosaurus has been found to have eaten both fish, marine reptiles and land animals
8. The Spinosaurus lived in what is now North Africa about 100 million years ago
9. The Spinosaurus lived around 94-110 million years ago in a period called the Cenomanian and Albian Ages.
10. Most scientists firmly believe that this dinosaur certainly could swim.
11. The name Spinosaurus means "spiny lizard." The dinosaur got its name because of the spines on its back!
12. Spinosaurus was the longest predator, due to this size it was likely heavier as well. So yes, Spinosaurus was the largest carnivore on Earth.

13. Spinosaurus was likely to be a warm-blooded dinosaur.
14. Spinosaurus teeth could be about 5 inches long,
15. They had up to 64 of them in their mouths,
16. Average teeth length of a Spinosaurus would have been about 2-3 inches long though.
16. The theories about the Spinosaurus's Huge Sail include –it was a hump – it was used for display – it regulated heat – it helped herd fish and more!
17. A full Skeleton of Spinosaurus has never been found.
18. It is very likely that if on land that the T-Rex would win any fight between the two dinosaurs.
19. You can buy Spinosaurus teeth for your fossil collection.
20. Spinosaurus became extinct around 90 million years ago.

