

Dino Word Stress

With words that contain 2 or more syllables in English, there is one syllable that has a rising stress. If you get the stress wrong, it can be difficult for others to understand— E.g. REcord (noun) and reCORD (verb). Follow the example below to distinguish the syllables with hyphens and label the stressed syllable by capitalizing the letters in each dinosaur name.

Names of Dinosaurs	Syllables and Stress
Triceratops	Tri-CE-ra-tops
Argentinasaurus
Titanosaurus
Pyroraptor
Compsognathus
Mapusaurus
